

Data Summary Guide

Use this guide to help you to organize and to ask some probing questions about your data. Spend some time looking at the trends across your survey data and summarize it here to select one or two areas to focus on in Steps 3 and 4 where you will look deeper into the area(s) you choose.

Assessment Tool	What immediately jumps out to you in the responses?	What are some strengths of your school community?	What data points indicate areas of greatest need?	Which of the six areas are you considering from this data?
Student Survey				<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Welcoming all Families ○ Communication ○ Student Success ○ Speaking Up for Every Child ○ Sharing Leadership ○ Collaboration with Community
Family Survey				<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Welcoming all Families ○ Communication ○ Student Success ○ Speaking Up for Every Child ○ Sharing Leadership ○ Collaboration w Community
Staff Survey				<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Welcoming all Families ○ Communication ○ Student Success ○ Speaking Up for Every Child ○ Sharing Leadership ○ Collaboration with Community
Family, School, and Community Partnerships Inventory				<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Welcoming all Families ○ Communication ○ Student Success ○ Speaking Up for Every Child ○ Sharing Leadership ○ Collaboration with Community

Putting It All Together

Based on your Data Collection points (Student Survey, Family Survey, Staff Survey, and the Inventory), what are the areas that stand out to you that the team would like to work on? Select one or two areas only. These will be the areas in which you will utilize the Rubrics in Step 3 and dig into the tools in Step 4 to develop your Action Plan.

- Welcoming All Families
- Communicating Effectively
- Supporting Student Success
- Speaking Up for Every Child
- Sharing Leadership
- Collaborating with the Community